

Correspondence and Beyond.
New Approaches to Truth in Law and Evidence
6.06.2025 – h. 9

9.00:

Welcome – Elena Marchese, Michele Ubertone

9.10 – 9.35:

Michele Ubertone, Maastricht University, michele.ubertone@maastrichtuniversity.nl

“An Attack on Attacks on Judicial Truth”

9.35–10.00:

Elena Marchese, Genoa University, elena.marchese@unibocconi.it,
elena.marchese@edu.unige.it

“A Multi-functional Conception of Truth for Legal Proceedings”

10.25–10.50:

Valerio Aiuti, Università La Sapienza, Rome, valerio.aiuti@uniroma1.it

“Truth: Re-built”

11.10 – Coffee break

11.40–12.05:

Bojan Spaić, Belgrade University, bojan.spaic@ius.bg.ac.rs, bojan.spaic@unibocconi.it

“Does it Make Sense to Speak about Legal Truth?”

12.05–12.35:

Luca Pressacco, Trento University, luca.pressacco@unitn.it

“Correspondence and Uncertainty: the Contribution of Forensic Metrology to Criminal Evidence”

12.35–13.05:

Alessia Farano, Luiss University, alessia.farano@luiss.it

“The Use of Lie and Memory Detection Techniques in Court: a New Alethic Right?”

1.05–1.35:

Bartłomiej Kucharzyk, Jagiellonian University, bartek.kucharzyk@gmail.com

“How Good Should Judges be in Evaluating Expert Evidence and What's Truth Got to Do with it?”

1.35 – Lunch Break